INTRODUCTION

Inception

The IISU grew out of the International College for Girls (ICG), which was established in 1995, as a college affiliated to the University of Rajasthan. Since then, ICG has crossed many significant milestones in its journey towards excellence in higher education. Besides receiving numerous other accolades, it was accredited A+ by the NAAC of UGC in 2005. It was also identified as a Model College by the state government in 2006 and thereafter it was conferred the status of Autonomous College in 2007 by the U.G.C. It was further recognized as a College with Potential for Excellence (CPE) by the UGC in 2010. In a national survey conducted by AC-Nielsen-ORG MARG, also in 2010 for the India Today magazine, ICG was rated as the topmost college in the state in Arts, Science and Commerce streams. Ranked among the top 30 institutions of the country in this survey, the College became a symbol of quality education and women's empowerment. The institution while working as an Autonomous College was declared as Deemed-to-be-a-University by the Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD), Government of India, vide its notification dated 2nd February, 2009, issued under Section 3 of the UGC Act, 1956. This, more than an achievement, was a reaffirmation of our faith in the quality and innovation, in research and academics taken up at the institution right from its inception in 1995. Soon after becoming Deemed University in the name and style of 'The IIS University', in a review conducted by the 'Tandon Committee' constituted by the MHRD, it was recognized for its competence and strength and was placed in category 1, along with the 37 other Deemed-to-be-Universities of Category 1 across the country. This has accorded IISU greater reliability and credibility and provided with a unique opportunity to explore and put in place what is needed to empower its students through the three Es -Efficiency, Excellence and Effectiveness and prepare them as worthy citizens, ready to take up social and economic reforms with a scientific aptitude.

Thus, from a visionary beginning in 1995, IISU is now moving on to new heights as a digitally smart campus with contemporary and relevant programmes and e-learning systems. Alongside its rapid growth and development, the University retains a friendliness and warmth, which has characterized the institution from its early days. With about 5000 students on its rolls and more than 300 faculty and staff members, it offers Undergraduate, Postgraduate and Doctoral degree programmes in streams like, Arts, Humanities, Visual Arts, Science, Home Science, Social Sciences, Computer Science and IT, Commerce and Management, Fashion Designing, Jewellery Designing etc. A multidisciplinary University, its curriculum requires both breadth of learning and in-depth knowledge and prepares its graduates to be problem- solvers, communicators and ethical citizens of a global community.

Science Behind Colours

Camlin and the Fine Arts department came together to make students aware of the world of colours through an online session 'SCIENCE BEHIND COLOURS'. It is very important to know how and when to apply colours and to what surface, there's science behind everything. The world of colour is also evolving on a daily basis. New surfaces, techniques, colours are introduced in the market. This session provided all the required information.

The speaker for the session was Mr. C.S. Ojha, DGM at Camlin Ltd. and was attended by 4 faculty members along with 112 students. Demonstrations were given by Ms. Sheetal Chitlangiya for dry pastels and by Mr. Shwet Goel for brush pens. Few commandments were shared with the students for how to become a successful artist. Same colour and medium can be used differently depending on the way it is treated and with what. Same thing can give you a number of results. He provided knowledge about Camlin's products, canvases & papers to be used, which were available.

The session was ended on an encouraging note by telling the students about an Annual Art & Design Contest organised by Camlin Art Foundation. Students were encouraged to create paintings and posters and participate at the zonal & national level. The whole session turned out to be very knowledgeable.

- Professional Courses
- Making use of e-library

The session further included some fun and interactive online activities that posed to be an icebreaker for the students who recently joined the IISU family. The session was coordinated by Dr. Monty Kanodia, Dr. Aditi Jain and Dr. Meenakshi Sharma.

Webinar on IISU e-library

Gone are the days when students used to only sit in the library and gathered the in depth knowledge about the questions moving in their minds. Contemporarily students try to gather more and more knowledge about the concepts they learn in their classes through various virtual platforms. To match the pace of the running minds of our insightful students the IIS(deemed to be University) has come up with such a platform “IISU e-library”. The department of Commerce organized a Webinar on IISU e-library to acquaint the students with all the features of it. The webinar was organized on 26th May 2021 on Microsoft Teams. The speaker was Dr. Sonal Jain, Head Librarian, IIS(deemed to be University).She explained all the details regarding the university’s virtual platform very precisely and the use of e-library was explained by her so beautifully that the students got highly encouraged to make use of this platform.

CULTURAL EXTRAVAGANZA Extra-Curricular Activities

Extracurricular programs, which include cultural activities, are indispensable for the integral formation of students and complete campus life. Extracurricular activities are just that, extra to the curriculum. In the case of education, extracurricular activities can enhance daily-taught subject areas or individual interests. These activities could include folk and classical to contemporary dance forms and enchanting music performances, theater, crafting, speech/debate, to name a few. In a normal situation, pre COVID-19, all extracurricular activities for students took place in campus environment without many restrictions, especially protocols that involved health safety. There is a plethora of extracurricular activities on campus which give an opportunity to the students to hone their creative skills and further enrich themselves. Participation in these activities develops team spirit and raises their level of self confidence in interacting with fellow students and peers.

Higher education institutions are confronting new challenges brought about by the present health contingency of COVID-19, ranging from the need for online educational resources to the creation of a complete extra curricular structure made possible by educational technology. As educators we owe our students the safe opportunity for extracurricular activities even during a pandemic. As offline activities were not possible during pandemic, we shifted to online mode for conduction of extracurricular activities. Event organized during the session 2020-21.

Creating positive change during Coronavirus through

It's unfortunate that we needed the coronavirus to serve as a wake-up call. Still, the situation is seeing the global community come together in a collective effort to make the world a better place. Whether that's by helping at the front lines, helping within your community or helping the planet, it's all connected. Our connection to the planet relies on us learning how to coexist with the things around us without destroying them. And a healthier planet equals healthier communities. While the threat posed by the coronavirus will eventually diminish, climate change will not. So what if we're stuck at home but still want to do something positive? Planting trees is still one of the most effective and cheapest ways to fight the climate crisis. We may be stuck at home, we may feel helpless when it comes to fighting COVID-19, but we can still take positive action for the planet by planting trees for the future.

Gender insensitivity is an issue we deal globally, and this leads to non-participation of both men and women in important sectors. Miss Bhumika Badlani acquainted students with the construction of gender and discussed how the differences between men and women are socially constructed and how the biological identity cannot determine a human being's potential or position in the society. The session covered concepts related to gender and socialization process and how gender discrimination leads to an unbalanced division of labour within the social institutions and in professional spaces. The culture of discrimination is normalized and hence we witness problems like dowry system, sexual harassment, differential treatment in personal and professional spaces.
